

Proposal Abstract:

We propose an extend observation for an unique phase-locked modulation pulsar, to study its time-varying amplitude modulation and properties of polarization. Although, we have observed this pulsar for about 30min with FAST on 2020 October, an extend observation is needed to confirm these emission features and study the polarization properties in detail.