

Proposal Abstract:

In this proposal, we plan to observe solar wind through FAST pulsar scintillation. By studying the annual variation of pulsar's dispersion, rotation and scintillation, we hope to gain insight into the ionized plasma boundary between the solar wind and Earth's magnetospheres, such as its transverse velocity, its magnetic field strength, and its spatial distribution.